

We head to St. Andrews today, known as the home of golf and for its associations with reformers John Knox and George Wishart. A guided walking tour includes visits to the ruins of St. Andrews Cathedral, which dates to 1200. Also see the University of St. Andrews, where it's believed John Knox received his education, and Martyrs' Monument, which commemorates four men executed in St. Andrews during the 16th-century Reformation: Patrick Hamilton, Henry Forrester, George Wishart, and Walter Mill. After some free time, we continue to the lovely city of Perth on the River Tay, to check in at the hotel and enjoy an evening lecture before dinner. (B, D)

Our day begins with a walking tour of Perth that includes St. John's Kirk. It was here, in 1559, that John Knox's sermon against idolatry instigated the Scottish Reformation. We then head west to the Highlands, making a stop for lunch at a

Following a morning lecture, we visit the West Highland Museum to learn more about the story of this region and its history, with special emphasis on the Jacobite risings of the 18th century. After some free time for an independent lunch, take the scenic Jacobite Steam Train from Fort William to Mallaig (duration approximately two hours). This historic locomotive passes over the stunning

Departing Fort William, we enjoy a scenic journey through Glencoe with its dramatic landscape formed by volcanic activity, and the Trossachs National Park. Continue to the medieval town of Stirling to tour the historic Stirling Castle, once the favored residence of the Stuart kings and queens. It is one of the largest and grandest castles in Scotland, and it has been the site of numerous
