

Yes, we uniquely combine a Christian perspective and academic excellence in all our courses and clinical experiences. We see Christian perspectives as interwoven discussions addressed throughout all of the courses you take at Calvin. We want you to think seriously about being redemptive servants of God, to contemplate what authentic compassion means, to learn ways of listening to and respecting others different from ourselves, to learn how to empower others with disabilities, and to begin to work on redemptive solutions for grief, poverty, injustice, and
